Future-oriented generation change

Gábor Somogyi is Krone's new managing director in Hungary

Budapest/Werlte, February 2017 – Gábor Somogyi, 38, is the new managing director of Hungarian Krone Trailer SE Kft. Somogyi follows directly in the footsteps of Hannes Nachtelberger, who retired recently. After studying Economics at the Szent István University, Somogyi gained experience in the electronics, telecommunications and leasing sectors before he turned his focus to commercial vehicles. Thanks to his experience, Somogyi is already well known to many hauliers in Hungary. “Krone has positioned itself very successfully in Hungary over recent years. Our strategic location near Budapest offers the entire Krone range of services, from new vehicles through servicing, rental and used vehicles. Our sales and service network within the country is also something we can be proud of. We aim to continue to expand our positions in the new and used vehicle areas over the long term,” says Gábor Somogyi. Contact Krone Trailer SE Kft.
